2 HEADINGS

- 2.1 The heading of Clauses and Paragraphs are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

3 INTERPRETATION

- 3.1 In the event of any conflicts, inconsistencies or discrepancies between these General Terms and Conditions and those in the Sales Confirmation, the provisions in the Sales Confirmation shall prevail.

4 ENTIRETY

- 4.1 The terms and conditions as set out herein together with the Seller's Sales Confirmation form the entire Agreement between the Seller and the Buyer for the Sale of the Product. No modification, waiver or discharge of any term of the Agreement shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the Seller. The failure or forbearance by the Seller to enforce any of its rights against the Buyer or any indulgence granted by the Seller to the Buyer shall not be construed as a waiver of that right or any other rights or in any way affect the validity of this Agreement.
- 4.2 Should any term or provision in the Agreement or part thereof be found by a Court or Tribunal to be invalid or unenforceable, such term, provision or part thereof shall be treated as deleted from the Agreement and the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

5 ASSIGNMENT

- 5.1 The Buyer shall not assign any of its interest, benefits or privileges in the Agreement in whole or in part to any party without the Seller's approval in writing. However, the Seller shall have the option of assigning this Agreement.

6 FORCE MAJEURE

- 6.1 The Seller shall not be liable for any failure to fulfill the terms and conditions of this Agreement if the fulfillment has been delayed, hindered or prevented by any circumstances whatsoever which are not within the immediate control of the Seller, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) but not limited to: any strikes, industrial actions, blockades, lockouts, riots, outbreak of war or hostilities or warlike operations or civil war or civil commotions or revolutions, labour disputes or reasonable apprehension thereof, fire, flood, accidents, storms, perils of the sea or any act of God, any duly constituted authority or governmental order, request or restriction, statutes, rules, regulations or bye-laws, any restriction, limitation, curtailment, failure, cessation or interruption to existing or contemplated sources of supply (whether in fact sources of supply for the purpose of any Contract or not) of the Product or the means of supply thereof ("force majeure events").
- 6.2 If by reason of any of the force majeure events, either the availability from any of the Seller's sources of supply of the Product or the normal means of transport of such Products is delayed, hindered, interfered with, curtailed, or prevented, then the Seller shall be at liberty to withhold, reduce or suspend deliveries under any contract to such extent as the Seller may in its absolute discretion think fit and the Seller shall not be bound to acquire by purchase or otherwise additional quantities from other suppliers. Any additional quantities which the Seller does acquire from other suppliers or from alternative sources may be used by the Seller at its complete discretion and need not to be taken into account by the Seller for the purpose of determining the extent to which it is to withhold, reduce or suspend deliveries under any contract. If the Buyer chooses to purchase from other suppliers due to any such steps taken by the Seller, the Seller shall not be responsible for any additional cost thereby incurred by the buyer.

- 9.6 Subject to the availability of the Product, the availability of facilities at the place of Delivery and the Buyer providing the required notice in accordance with Clause 8 hereof, the Seller will use its reasonable endeavour to ensure that the Product will be delivered promptly upon the Vessel's arrival and the Seller shall not in any way be responsible for any loss, expense, damage, demurrage, detention or increased costs incurred in consequence of the Vessel not being supplied promptly or otherwise being delayed or restrained for any reason whatsoever.

- 9.9 The receiving Vessel will be bunkered in turn as promptly as circumstances permit and the Seller shall not in any way be liable for demurrage or for any loss due to congestion at load port or to prior commitments of available bunker tanker, or when in Seller's opinion clear and safe berth is unavailable.
- 9.10 In the event that the receiving Vessel's arrival at the place of Delivery is later than the date of Delivery as stated in the Seller's Sales Confirmation, or the receiving Vessel refuses to receive the Product expeditiously for whatsoever reason, the Buyer and the receiving Vessel shall be jointly and severally liable to the Seller for all losses, additional expenses, charges arising therefrom including without limitation, demurrage at the Seller's established rates and any increase in the price of the Product.

- 9.12 In the event that the receiving Vessel's representative or crew has accepted the quantity of the Product delivered as evinced by the receiving Vessel's representative's or crew's signature on the bunker delivery note and there is no further written request from the receiving Vessel to the Seller's bunker tanker prior to the disconnection of the bunker hose, the quantity as shown on the bunker delivery receipt or bunker delivery note shall be deemed final and complete and there shall be no further obligation on the Seller to deliver up to the nominated quantity as specified in the Seller's Sales Confirmation and the Buyer shall not have any claims against the Seller for any short delivery. However, the Seller shall have the right to claim against the Buyer for any losses incurred including but not limited to loss of profit on the difference in quantity delivered and the nominated quantity.
- 9.13 Quantity of the Product delivered shall be determined as follows:

The quantity of the Product delivered as determined in accordance with Clause 9.13 shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Buyer.
- 9.13.4 In any case, should the Buyer's representative fail or decline to verify the quantities of the Product delivered, the measurements and calculations made by the Seller shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Buyer.

Whilst every care will be taken by the Seller to check that such information is accurate and up to date, it is the Buyer's responsibility to countercheck the accuracy of any information provided and such information are furnished to the Buyers on a strict understanding that it is not a contractual representation and that no responsibility of whatsoever nature will attach to the Seller for its accuracy or completeness.
- 9.15 The Seller shall not be liable for any delay caused to the Vessel due to congestion in ports, at terminal installations, floating storage terminals, bunkering pier or prior commitments of its bunker tanker.
- 9.16 The Buyer warrants that the Vessel does not have or will not use any VNET calculation on board her, failing which the Seller has the right to decline delivery.
- 9.17 In the event that the Vessel refuses to allow delivery to commence after the bunker tanker has been alongside her for two hours due to no fault of the bunker tanker or Seller, the Seller may notify the Buyer that the bunker tanker will cast off if delivery is not commenced in the next one hour and thereafter, any delivery will be on a reasonable endeavour basis. If the bunker tanker is prevented from leaving, not allowed to cast off from or is held back by the Vessel, the Seller shall be compensated by the Buyer for any loss and damage caused thereby including but not limited to any demurrage incurred for or in connection with any subsequent vessels to be supplied by the bunker tanker.

The Seller shall not be bound by any attempt or by any person to restrict, limit or prohibit its aforesaid maritime lien on the receiving Vessel unless written notice has been given to the Seller before the Seller send its Sales Confirmation to the Buyer.

Unless otherwise requested by the Buyer prior to the dispatch by the Seller of the Seller's Sales Confirmation, the Seller shall be under no obligation at any time to produce to the Buyer any evidence of Delivery to the Vessel.
